THE CEO & OWNER

Raquel Stubblefield is the designer and owner of Stubblefield Design & Creative. In 2023, she stepped into entrepreneurship to build a studio rooted in care, creativity, and meaningful impact—giving her the freedom to serve clients with intention and heart. She believes thoughtful design can support, uplift, and connect people in powerful ways. When she's not designing, she enjoys family time, organizing, and listening to podcasts and audiobooks.

Experience: 12+ years in graphic design

Education: Bachelor in Fine Arts in Graphic Design from East Carolina University

Favorite Program: Adobe Illustrator

OUR WHY, MISSION & CORE VALUES

Stubblefield Design & Creative was formed to build a legacy of balance, impact, generosity, and wealth by utilizing the gifts of graphic design, creativity, and entrepreneurship. Our mission is to positively impact lives through graphic design services. Our company core values—Integrity, Meaningfulness, Positivity, Ambition, Creativity, and Truth (I.M.P.A.C.T.)—are at the heart of everything we do. These values shine through in every project we take on, ensuring you get designs that not only look amazing but also resonate deeply.
